February 27,
2013

If we say we believe the Bible, there are certain truths we must believe. Children need to know what the Bible teaches us to believe.

This activity would be appropriate for any lesson about believing or faith. Materials needed are scissors, pencils, crayons or markers, copy paper, and tape.

Download: "I Believe" Letters and Picture Cards

- Print one copy of the "I BELIEVE" letters & cut them apart. (picture 1)
- Print out one copy per child of the "I BELIEVE" picture cards and cut them apart. (picture 2)
- Explain that coloring the picture and signing the card is a way of saying "I believe this is true."
- Have the children select as many different cards as they wish, color the pictures, and sign at the bottom of each card.
- Tape the cards to the wall to make a display. (picture 3)

I Believe

that God made
the world

I Believe

that all people
have sinned

I Believe

that God loves
all people

I Believe

that Jesus is God's Son

I Believe

that Jesus died for me on the cross

I Believe

that Jesus is alive now

I Believe

that the Bible
is God's Word

I Believe

that God hears me
when I pray
